CANADA REVENUES (PROVINCIAL)

2153 AL8var. 25c grey with black inscriptions originating from Plate II, the background print is composed of six scrolls facing north east instead of south west (as in Plate I). Considerably scarcer than #AL11), shows the constant small "2" in upper left "25" (Position 3). K. Bileski reported that only five examples (one mint and four used) exist; a fabulous exhibition piece for an advanced revenue collection, extremely rare, VF Photo Est. 1500.00

2154 AL8var. 25¢ Yellow with black inscriptions, the very rare Law stamp originating from Plate II (background print is composed of six scroll blocks facing north east, instead of south west as on Plate I). This stamp is easily scarcer than the elusive 25c (black) on grey background, which coincidentally was also printed with a Plate II background. Documented as early as 1922 (see description of above lot) and of the utmost rarity as documented by K. Bileski, Senator Calder and Ed Zaluski. Natural straight edge at right, small portion of handstamp cancel at foot and single punch cancel, light horizontal crease at top. This example is one of only five that Bileski was able to find in his extensive research on this issue, a great showpiece for an advanced revenue collection, VF Photo Est. 1250.00

LATE ARRIVALS

3709 Ireland Used Stock Housed in glassine envelopes in a small box, several hundred stamps with much of interest including various early overprints to the one shilling plus Seahorses #77, 77b, 78 and 78b, also coils #87 and 105, scarce commemoratives, etc., runs to the early 1990s, F-VF, will easily catalogue several hundred dollars Photo Est. 250.00

3710 Valuable 1930s Mint Canada A mint stock of the 1933 and 1935 regular issues, includes the coils also, hundreds of stamps, the Medallion Issue with gum problems in places as is usual or this set, otherwise mainly F-VF hinged, here are the quantities of some of the better numbers -- #198 (75), 200 (35), 201 (18), 207 (30), 226 (10), 227 (4), 230 (30), etc., a very useful lot with very high catalogue value Photo Est. 750.00

3711 Carton Full Thousands of stamps in a banker's box, a good percentage of the stamps are mint, mostly on various kinds of pages, countries of note are Bermuda, New Zealand, Jamaica and Great Britain and also Olympics (topical) but there are stamps from dozens and dozens of countries, if you are looking for several hours of profitable sorting and cataloguing this lot is for you Est. 450.00

3712 Foreign Countries Used Stock Dealer stock organized in selection cards in a red box (we estimate about 200 items), all used and including only items priced in the $10 to $50 range (occasionally higher), a useful lot because while it contains few complete sets it is very strong in key values and high values, light duplication, a wonderful array of countries from Andorra to Viet Nam, mostly F-VF, should catalogue over US$3,500.00 Photo Est. 750.00

3713 Worldwide Stock An interesting lot on selection cards housed in a red box, we estimate about 300 items, about 70% is British Commonwealth, includes higher cataloguing stamps to about $75, mixed condition especially on earlier but loads of useful and seldom seen stamps Photo Est. 350.00

3714 Worldwide Accumulation Thousands of worldwide stamps stuffed in glassine envelopes in a long red box, very good variety and totally unchecked, perfect for a worldwide collector Est. 150.00

3715 File Drawer of Great Britain A few thousand stamps in glassine envelopes in a long file drawer, from first issues 1980's, includes a good section of Victorian issues, King George V, Wildings, etc., predominantly used but with useful mint spotted here and there, unchecked for watermark and other varieties so making this a great lot to sort out, catalogue value is huge Est. 650.00

3716 Surprise Lot Small shipping carton full of stamps in glassines, on pages, complete booklets, presentation packs, etc., very good value in this one Est. 250.00

3717 Ireland Complete Booklets Over 40 different complete booklets from 1971 to 2003, also a few duplicates, noted better like 1304a, 1331a, etc., VF1341a, 1342a, 1343a, Photo Est. 250.00

3718 Small Nations Stamps and FDC's Items from various countries around the world such as Niuafo'ou, Isle of Man, Niue, Malta, extensive Malta, Tonga, Pitcairn, Tokelau, Samoa, Vanuatu, Fiji, etc., dozens and dozens of choice first day covers, stamp and souvenir sheets, VF NH, also an Australia Bicentennial Collection, a perfect lot for an Ebayer Est. 225.00

3719 Rare Canada First Day Cover Scott #1249-1250, 38¢ Regiment plate #1 lower left block on first day cover, very scarce as most of the plate blocks from this issue were accidentally destroyed at the printing plant, clean unaddressed official post office FDC, VF and attractive Est. 75.00

3720 Liberia -- British Royalty A stockbook containing a highly specialized lot of several dozen items as purchased from K. Bileski in the 1980s, all relating to Charles and Diana with many rare items such as gutter pairs and blocks of the same stamp or two different stamps, uncut souvenir sheet pairs, a souvenir sheet se-tenant with a completely blank sheet, etc., nicely put together with much descriptive information as to source and rarity, a fabulous lot, VF, owner's cost was US$2,000.00 Photo Est. 500.00

3721 Great Britain Machin Heads A collection/accumulation in glassine envelopes in a small box, regional issues included, mint and/or used from first issues to about 2013, hundreds of stamps, F-VF, the mint is NH, a great introductory lot to this fascinating field Est. 225.00
